NOTICE TO PATIENTS

Although we try our best to estimate your insurance benefit, it is no longer possible for us to interpret each individual policy or keep up with the many plans each insurance carrier adds. Due to the constant changes in benefit plans, it is YOUR RESPONSIBILITY to know your coverage and make sure we are contracted with your plan. Please check your coverage and any plan changes for anticipated services before your appointment.

Please remember your insurance coverage and related costs are between you and your insurance company and/or employer, NOT the insurance company and the doctor.

Because your policy is a confidential agreement between you and your insurance company, we are rarely privileged to know what procedures are covered or the specific guidelines that regulate those procedures.

I have read the above and understand
